Cancellation less than 2 weeks prior to the event	No refund

Conduct and Liability Mediation UK accepts no responsibility for the actions of delegates registered on Mediation UK events. Individuals will accept liability for any loss or damage arising as a consequence of their actions – this includes damage to accommodation. All delegates are expected to conform to reasonable standards of behaviour and to respect the rights of other participants. The equal opportunities code shall be observed at all times.

Mediation UK reserves the right at its sole discretion, to exclude any delegate found to be in breach of these conditions.

Mediation UK acknowledges that events venues insurance policies only cover public liability claims where they and their servants are held to be liable. No liability or responsibility whether in negligence or otherwise is accepted by events hosts for the safety or personal property of guests or for the damage to or loss from their vehicles.

Annual Restorative Practitioners' Network Day 2006

www.mediationuk.org.uk

A series of workshops and opportunities for networking, sharing ideas and experiences for Restorative Practitioners and those interested in victim-offender mediation.

Some views from previous years' overwhelmingly positive feedback on the event:

"A fantastic opportunity to explore, share and get to the heart of what matters and forge a combined approach"

"I left feeling excited, interested and re-motivated"

"This event reminded me of why I wanted to get involved in this work in the first place"

Places are limited, so please book early to avoid disappointment.
