Restorative Justice Consortium & mediation support

Annual Restorative Practitioners' Network Day

Tuesday 16th October 2007
Euston, London

Feedback from last year's event:
"An invaluable forum which can save practitioners a vast amount of time. A great place to exchange info."

Early Bird discount:
£55 fee for those paying by 7th September - www.restorativejustice.pbwiki.com

To be sent an invoice send names of attendees, email, phone and address to paul@mediationsupport.info or ring Mediation Support Ltd on 0117 9232963

Glossy A5 copies of this leaflet will be posted on request

Payment	Members/ Subscribers	Non-Members
By 7th Sept	£55	£75
Payment received 7th Sept-16th Oct	£70	£90

Annual Restorative Practitioners' Network Day 2007
Friends House, Euston Road, London

Workshops:

1) Does Restorative Justice work?
2) Restorative Practice in 'Anti-Social Behaviour' and other community settings
3) Tools for (learning and doing) restorative empathy
4) The needs of young victims of violent crime
5) Victim Satisfaction and Offender Satisfaction
6) Self awareness and self care for restorative workers in the context of serious and sensitive cases
7) Whose standards are out there? -different approaches to practice standards
8) Emotional safety and risk assessment
9) Working with cases where the responsibility for the harm is shared (e.g. after bullying from 'the victim').

Tuesday 16th October Programme:

9.30am Registration & early networking
10.15am Opening Plenary
10.35am Workshops
11.50am Refreshments
12.15pm Workshops
1.30pm Lunch break
2.30pm Workshops
3.45pm Closing Plenary
4.15pm Close

Presenters include:
Barbara Tudor (West Midlands Probation) -Workshop 6, Harriet Bailey (Restorative Justice Consortium), Lesley Saunders (Conflict Practitioners UK working committee) -W7, Marian Liebmann (freelance international trainer) -W1, Paul Baker & Paul Crosland (Conflict Practitioners UK working committee) -W3, Peter Wallis (Oxfordshire Youth Offending Team), Saar Yaniv (South Devon YOT) -W9, Wendy Freshman (The Mediation Service, Canterbury...) -Workshop 2.

Booking:
Payment by 7th September - £55 for RJC members/ Mediation Support newsletter subscribers: send name, address, email, tel and cheque payable "Mediation Support Ltd", 87 Sommerville Road, Bristol BS7 9AE

Updates to programme and choices on www.restorativejustice.pbwiki.com